DEPUTY PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Welcome Back to Term 3

Welcome back to Semester 2 2019, the final term for our HSC candidates and new courses of study for our Stage 5 elective students. We hope the break was a chance for families to spend valuable time together and all students are refreshed and ready to tackle the challenges which lay ahead.

A quick thank you to the many staff who gave up their time during the holidays to mark student work or to come into school to assist in the preparation and development of student major works. This dedication from both staff and students is one of the great hallmarks of this fantastic school.

School Leaders' Induction Ceremony

The new School Leaders will be inducted on Friday of next week, 2 August. This newly elected group has been busy meeting and preparing new ideas. The dynamic nature of this group is sure to bring a new flavour to our Student Executive. It will also be the last official Ceremony for our outgoing Leaders, who have been fantastic ambassadors for the school.

Staff Development Day

On Monday's Staff Development Day, staff professional learning was on the agenda. We were fortunate to have two excellent sessions of professional learning. The first was a presentation from Autism Awareness Australia focused around supporting students with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) in our classrooms. This presentation was engaging and provided real solutions to support our students with ASD to achieve in their learning. The second presentation was a follow-up to the professional learning session held in Term 2 focusing on motivating and engaging students in the classroom. This was presented by Professor Andrew Martin and gave staff practical strategies to use in the classroom focused around the Engagement and Motivation Wheel.

P&C Meetings

The first of our P&C Meetings for Term 3 will be held next Tuesday 30 July. The Executive Meeting commences at 6.30pm, with the General Meeting being held in the Staff Common Room at 7.30pm. As always we welcome the input of all parents and encourage their attendance. The General Meeting will feature a presentation by Mrs Lees, Head Teacher Mathematics, on the changes to the Mathematics curriculum.

HSC Dance Performance Night

Just a reminder our HSC Dance students will be performing their HSC Major Works next Wednesday 31 July at 7.00pm in C1.1. Come and see some fantastic HSC works from our very talented and dedicated students here at Cherrybrook Technology High School.

CTHS Ski and Italy Trips

The annual CTHS trek to Mt Hotham to enjoy the snow was held over the July holiday break. A fantastic time was had by all, with excellent conditions on top of the mountain. A huge thank you to Mr Fisher for his organisation and the staff who also attended, Mr Clements, Ms Donoghue, Ms Holt, Mr Kennedy and Mr Townsend, for giving up their time to provide this wonderful opportunity for our students.

Another group of students, led by Ms Adamou, travelled to Italy during the holiday break. They were all enticed with the irresistible charm, delicious food, magnificent architecture and scenery and spectacular country. I would like to thank Ms Adamou for her organisation, as well as Mr Keating and Mr and Mrs Lees, for providing an exceptional experience for our students in Italy.

School Uniform Reminder

As the weather is still quite cold, we need to remind the student body about wearing the correct winter school uniform for the term. Junior boys please remember you are required to wear your tie every day. Jackets are available from Lowes at Castle Towers along with ties if you require them. The School Uniform Code specifies the types of acceptable jackets and jumpers for school wear, which does NOT include jackets or jumpers with hoods! The wearing of a 'hoodie' is likely to result in time spent in detention. If you need to wear an item of clothing which is not school uniform, please see a Deputy before school, with a signed parental note explaining why you are out of uniform.

Trade Display Day

On Wednesday 3 July all 134 Preliminary Business Studies students had their Trade Display Day in the MPC. Students worked in groups of five and six to simulate businesses with new and innovative products which were displayed and demonstrated in the style of a consumer trade show.

The key component of this assessment task was marketing, where students devised appropriate and effective marketing campaigns to launch their product and make it available to the general public. Students needed to consider their target markets, distribution methods, the pricing of products and advertising and promotion strategies.

Each group had to 'pitch' their campaign to Business Studies teachers, as well as create an appealing and informative display for potential customers (Stage 5 students) who attended on the day.

Overall, The Trade Display Day was a great success, with many students putting in considerable time and effort to develop their marketing campaigns and eye-catching displays. Some certainly appear destined for fulfilling careers in sales and marketing.

Physical Theatre Workshop Attracts Enthusiastic Participants

Kate Sherman is a multi-disciplinary performer, performance maker, choreographer, movement researcher and educator. She is a graduate of NIDA and currently teaches Performance Making there. She has created works throughout Australia as well as studied and created performances in the UK, USA, Hong Kong and Europe. On Monday 22 July, CTHS was privileged to have Kate conduct a full day workshop in Physical Theatre with 28 enthusiastic Drama students across all year groups meeting at 9.30am in C1.1, to develop skills and strategies for devising physically dynamic devised performance.

Here is what Niklas Bommers (Year 7) had to say about the workshop:

The Physical Theatre workshop was a good experience to have under my belt now. To start us off we did a small exercise where you just had to walk around the room and the instructor would say stop and you would just high ten the nearest person. We did other fun things like devise a mindscape where we had to create a story just by body and facial reactions. We also did another activity where we got into groups of four or five and we had to write our names with a chosen part of your body. We then put all of the different devised physical sequences together and came up with a story for the work. My group decided we were in a fictitious war zone and we had to work out a secret code to get the upper hand in the conflict. My favourite part was where one of my friends who also attended the workshop stood on my back and I had to hold him up for a part of the performance.

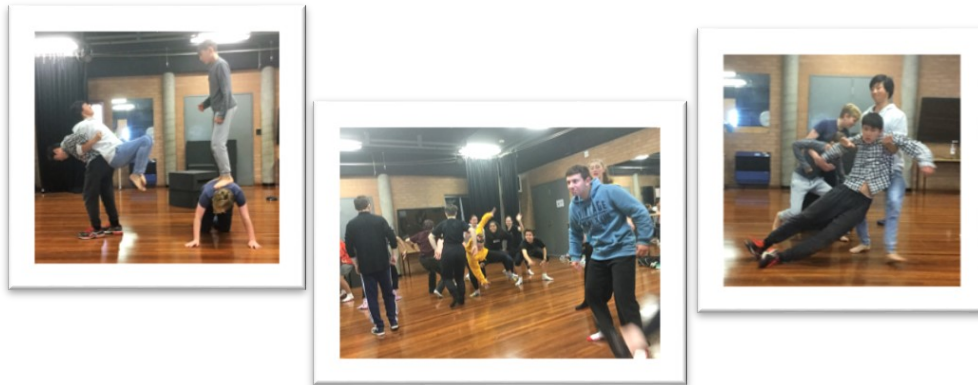

Vidumini Malalagama and Ean Tzuan Lee from Year 8 commented as follows:

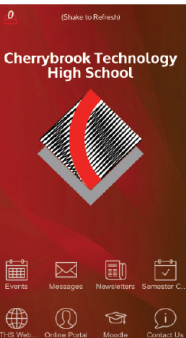

Having the opportunity to attend the workshop hosted by Kate Sherman, specifically targeting the aspects and techniques of physical theatre was a really valuable experience. Kate Sherman is an experienced elite actress who has performed internationally. This opportunity was greatly informative and enjoyable for students attending from all years. We were taught techniques that will improve our improvisational skills and playbuilding. There is no doubt everyone attending benefited from this activity.

Kate Sherman's depth of knowledge and expertise really equipped our Drama students with some exceptionally useful tips for devising group performance and her influence is sure to make itself felt in the work we will see emerging in the drama classroom in the near future.

Thank you to Mrs Cunningham who was on hand to oversee the workshop which took place during our Staff Development Day. Additionally, many thanks to the wonderful parents for supporting their child to participate in this valuable creative endeavour.

SCHOOL CARPARKS

Boom gates are installed in both school carparks. Parking is available to staff only, between the hours of 7.00am and 4.00pm on school days. Ample street parking is available for visitors to the school.

Careers Update

Attending Upcoming Tertiary Institution Open Days

Register online

Let them know you're coming, that way you will be the first to find out about their workshops and events (so you can get spots first), plus they often offer prizes for registering. Some Open Days require registration to attend.

Get your bearings

Campuses often have thousands of students and can be HUGE, so it pays to familiarise yourself with the layout before you turn up. Download a map or print one off, circle the 'mustsees' and if they offer maps on the day it's a good idea to take one.

How will you get there?

Car parking can be hectic, so plan where you're going to park and how to navigate there. Public transport is usually great around universities, but you may need to check which bus/train will get you there and if they have any special services for the day.

Plan your day

- You should be able to find an online planner or downloadable program, so grab your copy and then decide which events on the day you want to go to. You may need to register for individual events so you don't miss out.
- Pack a pen and notebook or download a note-taking app like Google Keep before you go. You will also need your list of questions (see below for ideas) and if they offer help with applications on the day, take any documents you will need.
- Once you are there participate as much as you can in lectures, workshops, tours, etc. Talk to students and teachers and take brochures so you can remember what they told you.

Questions to ask:

- What kind of jobs do people do after this Degree?
- Are there any practical components, eg field-trips or internships?
- Is it competitive to get in and are there alternative entry options?
- How easy is it to change if I don't enjoy this course?
- Can I study part-time if my circumstances change?
- Will I be able to work straight away or is there more training?
- What subjects should I study at school?
- Are there any scholarships available?
- Will I get to choose my major after starting the degree?
- Is it possible to study any subjects online?
